Let's say you told my wife that her figure is wrong and because of that she has been molested. This is very hurtful and degrading to women, especially since I know that I'm not the only man who made this argument. Perhaps after seeing a few of these posts I'll realize that I'm wrong, too. After all, I never should have made such a "hot" joke. But in my defense, I don't make jokes that are hurtful. Why do these guys feel so free to make degrading jokes about women? We need a law to regulate jokes that demean women. 14) "The ball is in your court, pal. Show your face. The world is waiting." This comment is directed at a single man who posts a comment in support of a woman and claims that men need to "step up" and be more supportive of women. All the women in the world would benefit from men being more supportive. This is irrelevant. 15) "We don't make any progress if we are not guided by enlightened self-interest. And that means we need to stop thinking of each other as pieces of meat." This comment is correct. We shouldn't think of women as "pieces of meat". We need to be guided by "enlightened self-interest" as man, rather than by "damn near all" selfishness. And "pieces of meat" are not "thinking of each other as pieces of meat". 16) "How many of you had a mother? I'm not judging." This comment is directed at a feminist (male) who calls himself a "guinea pig" and who does not understand that he is not actually a real guinea pig. This is why I do not give man/feminist blog awards. If they really understood the logic of the "logic" of feminist dogma, they would realize that they are not guinea pigs.
